

A must-have textbook
for learning classical rikka

To the fascinating world of Senko rikka

《with explanation to all works》

collection of 93 drawings of rikka,
designated as Important Cultural Property

Appreciation of Senko Rikka (in Japanese)

Rikka is the oldest style of ikebana and was refined by Senko Ikenobo II, 32th Headmaster. In those days, rikka was very popular among the court, and heavily loved by Emperor Gomizuno-o and Court nobles.

"Rikka-no-shidai Kyujusanpei-ari", collection of drawings of rikka by Senko Ikenobo II was compiled as the models of the art. The drawings in this collection have a lively expression and led to the later development of rikka.

And, highly valued historically and culturally, "Rikka-no-shidai Kyujusanpei-ari" was designated as Important Cultural Property in 1973. In this book, the present Headmaster Sen'ei Ikenobo explains in detail all the works of the "Rikka-no-shidai Kyujusanpei-ari". You can learn the peculiar sashikuchi (the position of the cut stems of floral materials placed in the vase) and structure of yakueda which are different from the present rikka.

* "Rikka-no-shidai Kyujusanpei-ari" includes 91 drawings of rikka arranged between 1624 and 1643 by Senko Ikenobo II (and 2 drawings of rikka by other arrangers). Designated as Important Cultural Property in 1973. Possessed by Ikenobo.

This book is a reedition of "Ikenobo Koten Ikebana Card Senko-no-rikka" (3 volumes), published in 1978 by Kodansha Ltd.

Nihon Kadosha Co., Ltd.

8F, Ikenobo Headquarters Bldg. Karasuma Sanjo Sagaru
Nakagyo, Kyoto 604-8134

Tel. +81-75-223-0613 Fax. +81-75-212-0659

Online Shop Karaku <https://www.kadosha.co.jp/en/>

NEW

NO.10265101

《with explanation to all works》

collection of 93 drawings of rikka,
designated as Important Cultural Property

Appreciation of Senko Rikka

Price: JPY 3,900 (tax excluded) B5 Size/192 pages

Note: This book is written in Japanese only.
NO translation in English.

Application Form

Code	Item	Price	Quantity
10265101	【NEW】 Appreciation of Senko Rikka	¥3,900 +tax
Name		Address
		Phone	Customer Code